Revised 6/19/2003

2. Applicant proposes to provide private pay telephone service in the State of Missouri under the jurisdiction of the Missouri Public Service Commission (Commission) pursuant to Section 392.410 and 392.520 C.C.S.S.C.S. HB 360 and which is referred to therein as customer owned coin telephone telecommunications service, but will herein be referred to as private pay telephone service, and requests certificate of service authority to install, operate, control, manage and maintain private pay telephone(s).
3. Applicant requests that this certificate of service authority be made applicable to additional locations which may be served by the Applicant in the future.
4. As a provider of private pay telephone service, I agree that my private pay telephone equipment (hereafter "equipment") shall have the following operational characteristics and I agree to abide by the following terms:
 - a. Users of the equipment shall be able to reach the operator without charge and without the use of a coin.
 - b. Any intrastate operator services provider employed shall hold a certificate of service authority from this Commission, and shall have on file with the Commission approved tariffs for the provision of operator services to traffic aggregators.
 - c. Users of the equipment shall be able to reach local 911 emergency service, where available, without charge and without using a coin or, if 911 is unavailable, there shall be a prominent display on each instrument of the required procedure to reach local emergency service without charge and without using a coin.
 - d. The equipment shall be mounted in accordance with all applicable Federal, State, and local laws for disabled and/or hearing impaired persons.
 - e. The equipment shall allow the completion of local and long distance calls.
 - f. The equipment shall permit access to directory assistance.
 - g. There shall be displayed in close proximity to the equipment in 12 Point Times Bold print the name, address and telephone number of the private pay telephone service provider, the procedures for reporting service difficulties, the method of obtaining customer refunds and the method of obtaining long distance access. If applicable, the notice shall state that one-way calling only is permitted. If an alternative operator service (AOS) provider is employed, the private pay telephone service provider shall display such notice as is required by this Commission.
 - h. The equipment shall be registered under Part 68 of the rules of the Federal Communications Commission's registration program.
 - i. The equipment shall not block access to any local or interexchange telecommunications carrier.
5. I understand and agree that the certificate of service authority will permit me to provide only private pay telephone service in the State of Missouri and will not authorize me to provide any other telecommunications services regulated by the Commission.
6. I understand that the certificate of service authority to provide private pay telephone service is not transferable.
7. I understand that providing pay telephone service without a certificate of service authority or in violation of the terms and conditions prescribed for the provision of such service may subject me to penalties as provided for by law.
8. I agree to provide a complete list of served locations if this information is requested by the Commission Staff.

6. I understand that the certificate of service authority to provide private pay telephone service is not transferable.
7. I understand that providing pay telephone service without a certificate of service authority or in violation of the terms and conditions prescribed for the provision of such service may subject me to penalties as provided for by law.
8. I agree to provide a complete list of served locations if this information is requested by the Commission Staff.
9. I further agree to notify the Commission, in writing, if I cease to provide private pay telephone service in the State of Missouri or if my address or phone number changes at my principal place of business.
10. Unless and until otherwise ordered by the Commission, I agree to pay my annual apportioned share of general regulator expenditures that are charged to telephone companies pursuant to Section 386.370 RSMo.
11. I understand and agree that I will be responsible to the local exchange telephone company for payment of all toll and local charges originating from or accepted at the private pay telephone(s).
12. I understand and agree that charges for private pay telephone service will be assessed in accordance with the appropriate tariff of the local exchange telephone company providing access.

WHEREFORE, Applicant requests the Commission to grant its certificate of service authority to Applicant to install, operate, control, manage and maintain private pay telephone service in the State of Missouri as described above.

EXHIBIT "A"

Section 1.

This nonprofit corporation is a public benefit organization organized and operated exclusively for tax exempt charitable and educational purposes as within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, of the United States of America.

In furtherance of its nonprofit, tax-exempt purposes, the corporation shall have the following powers and authority; however, the corporation shall not be empowered, and is prohibited from, engaging in any activity which is not allowed pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, of the United States of America:

- (a) To operate under the name as set forth in Article 1;
- (b) To employ qualified counsel and other necessary personnel to carry out the purposes of this corporation;
- (c) To adopt and use a corporate seal;
- (d) To promote a higher quality of education through the drafting and distribution of literature, conducting seminars and conferences.
- (e) To act as Trustee under any trust incidental to the principal objects of the corporation and to receive, hold, administer and expend funds and property subject to such trust.
- (f) To provide relief of the poor, the distressed and the underprivileged, lessen neighborhood tensions, eliminate prejudice and discrimination, and combat community deterioration. To develop and expand the opportunities available to underprivileged low-income persons or groups comprised substantially of such persons to own, manage, operate and gain employment in business enterprise. To further the development and expansion of business enterprises which make specific provisions for employment, training and education of residents of, or which are located in, economically underprivileged or depressed area. To assist underprivileged persons or groups comprised substantially of such persons, in developing managerial and entrepreneurial skills necessary for the successful operation of business enterprises. To assist underprivileged persons or groups comprised substantially of such persons in obtaining adequate financial support for the successful operation of business enterprises.

(g) To aid, support and assist by gifts, contributions or otherwise, other corporations, community chests, funds and foundations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary or educational purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

(h) To expand the opportunities available to underprivileged persons or groups comprised substantially of such persons to obtain adequate low-cost housing accommodations.

(i) Either directly or indirectly, and either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, whether such others be persons or organizations of any kind or nature, such as corporations, firms, associations, trusts, institutions, foundations or governmental bureaus, departments or agencies, to do any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering or attainment of the foregoing purposes, including among other things:

(1) to provide advice, support, credit, funds, capitals gifts and all other lawful forms of assistance, financial and otherwise, to or for use in business enterprises which are or will be owned or operated in whole or in part by underprivileged persons or groups of persons comprised substantially of such persons, or which will make specific provisions for employment, training and education of residents of, or located in, underprivileged or depressed areas;

(2) to furnish, secure and arrange for management, administrative, technical and other advice, support, training and assistance to underprivileged persons or groups comprised substantially of such persons in order to enable them to develop the skills necessary to the successful operation of business enterprises;

(3) to encourage and assist underprivileged persons or groups comprised substantially of such persons to organize, create, acquire, obtain financing for, own, manage and operate business enterprises;

(4) to obtain information and conduct research, studies and analysis, and prepare and publish reports that may be of use in furthering the development and expansion of business enterprises which are or will be owned and operated by underprivileged persons or groups comprised substantially of such persons, or business enterprises which will make specific provision for employment, training and education of residents of, or located in, economically underprivileged and depressed areas, including information, research, studies, analysis and reports as to markets, products, services, skills, sources of financing, and any and all other related matters;

(5) to conduct educational and other efforts to eliminate any prejudice and discrimination in the business and financial community, and to foster the establishment of sound and constructive relationships between the business and financial community and underprivileged persons or groups comprised substantially of such persons seeking opportunities in business;

(6) to aid, support and assist by gifts, contributions, loans, investments, and other lawful forms of assistance other persons or administration of the affairs and attainment of the purposes of the corporation and to have and exercise all the powers now or hereafter conferred by the laws of the State.

(r) To exercise such other and incidental powers as may reasonably be necessary to carry out the purposes for which the corporation is established, provided that such incidental powers shall be exercised in a manner consistent with its tax-exempt status as a public foundation as set forth in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, of the United States of America.

(s) The several clauses contained in this shall be construed both as purposes and powers and the statements contained in each clause shall, except where otherwise expressed, be in no wise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clauses, but shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers. Notwithstanding any provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not engage in any political activity proscribed by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, of the United States of America, nor shall any income or assets of the corporation inure to the benefit of any member, private individual or business entity.

Section 2.

The Board of Directors shall conduct all the business of the corporation and shall be the only members of the corporation. The number of Directors, and the qualifications shall be established in the bylaws of this corporation. The qualifications of member and the manner of their admission shall be fully provided in the Bylaws.

Section 3.

This nonprofit corporation is formed without any purpose of pecuniary profit and shall

Section 4.

Matt Blunt
SECRETARY OF STATE

The private property of the trustees and members shall be non-assessable and shall not be subject to the payment of any corporate debts, nor shall the trustees or members of the corporation become individually or corporately liable or responsible for any debts or liabilities of the corporation.

Section 5.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of jurisdiction of the county in which the principle office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Section 6.

These Articles may be amended at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors, or at a special meeting called for that purpose, by a two-thirds (2/3) majority.

Section 7.

The undersigned incorporators/trustees/directors shall act as the initial Board of Directors until their successors shall have been duly qualified and elected. The Board shall not be less than three (3). The Boards shall be elected yearly at the annual business meeting by the voting members.
