Good evening, surprised you haven't jumped on this incredible offer to take advantage of a have a WEBEX conference with Twilio's channel manager tomorrow.

This would be a great opportunity to take advantage of and would settle this matter within 5- 10 minutes of clarification.

I know why you don't want to take advantage of this opportunity. Because it would confirm I the complainant am correct on this matter!

Isn't it amazing what happens when you put clues together!

Just send me an email back and let me know. I'll be available this evening until around 11 pm- 12 pm, so it won't be too late to take me up on that offer of setting up a conference call via WEBEX.

I would think you would want rectification, but I'm sure when the story doesn't fit the narrative of your way, that is why you don't want to have a conference about it.

Just let me know. Maybe your "senior software engineer " would like to attend too!
