Good afternoon/evening. So we can clear this whole matter up with Twilio parent company of SendGrid . Im extending the outreach of setting up a conference call, therefore it will clear the air about who is correct on this matter.(me).

Would you like the opportunity to go over the detail of how SendGrid actually works and is utilized and verification of the paperwork that was sent by Twilio to me and the authenticity of it.

This would clear a lot of this matter up.

What do you say? What works for a good time for. You all tomorrow, therefore we can knock the nonsense on your end off.

Let me know of a time and I can setup a video conference through WebEx tomorrow. To clarify this between all parties, Ameren, I and Twilio.

Look forward to hearing from you and for getting this matter resolved.
