ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO SUSPEND PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE

Issue Date: January 28, 2019

Effective Date: January 28, 2019

On January 28, 2019, Kansas City Power & Light Company and KCP&L Greater Missouri Operations Company (collectively, "the Companies"), filed a Motion to Suspend Procedural Schedule. In the motion, the Companies state that the parties are continuing negotiating and are considering extending the Companies' current MEEIA plan another year.

To that end, the Companies ask the Commission to suspend the procedural schedule until February 13, 2019, so that the parties may have more time to negotiate. The Companies state that no party other than NRDC opposes the motion. NRDC filed its objection on January 28, 2019, stating that it received little consultation or notice of such a momentous motion.

The Commission finds the motion reasonable, and will grant it expeditiously so that rebuttal testimony, which would otherwise be due today need not be filed.¹

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. The Motion to Suspend Procedural Schedule is granted.
2. The Companies shall file a stipulation or alternative pleading no later than February 13, 2019.
3. This order shall be effective when issued.

Morris L. Woodruff
Secretary

Ronald D. Pridgin, Deputy Chief Regulatory
Law Judge, by delegation of authority pursuant to Section 386.240, RSMo 2016..

Dated at Jefferson City, Missouri, on this 28th day of January, 2018.

¹ KCP&L and GMO have filed tariffs with effective dates of April 1, 2019. If the parties do not reach agreement, renewal of the procedural schedule may result in tariff suspension or rejection due to a lack of time to resolve the case by hearing.
