To whom this may concern. I unfortunately have no interest in a rehearing on this matter or an appeal, as payment (even though I don't agree with it) was made to reconnect services.

The Complainant wishes to withdraw any re-hearing or appeal process, as I haven't gotten a fair trial in this matter. It would be a further waste of time for me to spend numerous months waiting for an outcome and a continued circus.

Knowing that there is civil litigation filed against the Commission, it would be improper for I to resume or allow the Commission to hear this matter on any appeal.

The Commission has brought any lawsuit filed against them by the Complainant and or business upon themselves and we look forward to our matter being heard in Cole County Courts and being presented before the Cole County Civil Courts.

Complainant submits his motion to withdraw the appeal, as there is litigation has been filed for recourse in Cole County Civil Courts against the Commission.
