Requestor Lange Sarah -
Response Provided April 12, 2022

Question:0250.1

Please refer to the Company's response to DR 250 which provides hourly loads by rate class. Please clarify what, if any, voltage or loss adjustments have been applied. For example, for classes in which some customers are served at a primary voltage and some customers are served at a secondary voltage, have the loads of the customers served at secondary voltage been adjusted to primary equivalent load prior to the loads of primary customers being added to the loads of secondary customers? Please provide the factors used for this analysis if it occurred, or provide Evergy's estimate of the factors applicable to this analysis, by the shortest interval applicable (for example, annually, monthly, seasonally, or hourly).
