Brett Felber
VS
Ameren Missouri

Last thing I want to address about this exhibit D NO MPSC0027. Ameren Missouri says the agreement date was for May 18, 2023 and my payment agreement was for May 22, 2023. (I know my date is the correct date, because that is what they emailed me.

This exhibit that I am presenting will discredit even if there was a payment due date that I would have never gotten an email from Ameren Missouri stating that the "due" date was the 18th of May because www2.ameren.com is not an actual email address.

I will encourage the Staff of the Commission to encourage them to try sending an email to www2.ameren.com and further more, Ameren Missouri trying to send an email directly from www2.ameren.com

I do think 30 days is extravagant to give Ameren, given the circumstances, but I can respect that and will respect it.

I also encourage Ameren's Regulatory Department to try and send me an email from www2.ameren.com , I guarantee you they can't and won't, because its a broken link and invalid email address, therefore this counterfeit document they decided to draft up would have never even made it out of their inbox. It would clearly state invalid email address. I'm sure if you ask Aubrey Krcmar, the culprit that drafted this, will find not only another excuse, but also alter more documents while shes at it.

In fact, so therefore Ameren Missouri doesn't have to alter are proudce another counterfeit document, I'll attach a copy to show www2.ameren.com isn't valid email address to send or receive documents from.

While the Staff is doing their investigation, because I don't think Ameren Missouri will apologize and further deceive me or defraud me out of money, please ask Ameren Missouri which County District Attorney they would like to deal with regarding this piece of paper? They have a choice to choose from. They can circle their response below.

- 1) St.Louis County Prosecuting Attorney's Office
- 2) St.Louis City Prosecuting Attorney's Office
- 3) Cole County, Missouri Prosecuting Attorney's Office.

Attached is a exhibit A showing it isn't a valid email link.
