3.1.3 Link-Up Missouri Connection Program

Link-Up Missouri (Link-up) is a Federal Lifeline assistance program applicable to eligible residential subscribers as defined below in section 3.1.4.F, and designed to promote subscribership to the telephone network among low-income residential households.

- 3.1.3.A Service connection charges, as set forth subsequently in this tariff, for initial installation of the main residential service access line, will be discounted at a rate of 50%, not to exceed $30.00. This reduced charge shall be assessed only for a single residential telephone line per eligible household at the principal place of residence.
- 3.1.3.B The customer may defer payment on up to $200 of the above charges without interest for a period not to exceed two months. The deferred charges do not include any permissible security deposits required.
- 3.1.3.C A qualifying low-income customer may choose either A or B, or both A and B as described above.
- 3.1.3.D Link-Up assistance is available for a second or subsequent time only for a principal place of residence with an address different from the residence address where assistance was previous provided.
- 3.1.3.E The premises at which the residence service is requested must be the applicant's principal place of residence.
- 3.1.3.F There can only be one telephone access line serving the residence premises. The residence premises household (dwelling unit) shall consist of that portion of an individual house or building or one flat or apartment occupied by a single family or individuals functioning as one domestic establishment.
- 3.1.3.G Link-Up will not be furnished on a Foreign Exchange service.

3.2 Directory Listing Service

3.2.1 The Company will provide Customer a single directory listing consisting of the Customer's name, Customer's street address, and Customer's telephone number which is designated as the Customer's main billing number, in the telephone directory published by the dominant exchange service provider in the Customer's exchange areas.

3.2.2 The Company may limit the length of any listing in the directory by the use of abbreviations when, in its sole discretion, the clearness of the listing or the identification of the Customer is not impaired thereby.

3.2.3 The Company may, in its sole discretion, refuse a listing (i) that does not constitute Customer's legally authorized or adopted name, (ii) that contains obscenities in the name, (iii) that is likely to mislead or deceive calling persons as to the identity of the listed party, (iv) that is a contrived name used for advertising purposes or used to secure a preferential position in the directory, or (v) that is more elaborate than reasonably necessary to identify the listed party. The Company will notify Customer prior to withdrawing any listing which is found to be in violation of this subpart.

3.2.4 In order for listings to appear in a directory, a Customer must furnish the listing to the Company in time to meet the directory publishing schedule.
