Re: Mo. Public Service Commission

I would like to introduce myself, I am Patricia Blevins. I haven't been attending these court sessions because I am physically unable to. My name should be removed from this, as I don't know about these wells, not even the location, with the exception of a few.

My main reason for submitting this is because my husband, Leon David Blevins of 62's years, is being unjustly accused of things he has not done, from the day he acquired these wells he has diligently serviced them, he has tested, treated, and maintained them, he has gone in the middle of the night to work on them, rain or snow.

We never received any complaints until he raised the monthly payment, and that was only from Chuck, Creeke and Samson. They have made complaints that they can't prove, because there is no truth in them, they came to our home, telling us what we had

To do, they were rude and threatening.
I don't believe the HOA they have was ever set up legally, we were not informed of a meeting to elect officers or that there even was a meeting, first we knew of it was when they showed up at our door, with a list of demands we were to follow to be a part of the HOA.

To say Travis has not complied with the Commissions demands is really unjust, he has worked on everything they have sent to him, morning, noon, and night, to the point he was falling behind on other things, wells are not his whole life, he runs a salvage business, construction company, an antique shop, plus other things. He has Dr. appointment and so do I, I have been in the hospital several times during this and so has he.

Giving him a fine for something he's not guilty of is really unfair.
He's an 80 yr old man doing a better than good job of taking care of his responsibilities.

He's a 20 yr vet, retired at the age of 37 as a E-8 on the E-4 list, honor graduate out of logistic supplies,

2 tours to Viet-Nam, top secret missions, Army Commendation medal with Oak leaf Clusters, just to name one. He's been diligent all his life, give him credit where it's due.

Thank - you.
