ORDER EXCUSING ALL PARTIES ON FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2012

Issue Date: October 19, 2012

Effective Date: October 19, 2012

The Missouri Public Service Commission is granting the request of Staff to not go on the record on Friday, October 19, 2012.

The Commission received that request by email from Staff copied to other parties at 4:23 p.m. on Thursday, October 18, 2012 ("Staff's email"). In support of the request, Staff represented that certain parties had resolved certain issues by agreement. By the end of that day, no party had responded to that email with an objection. Therefore, at 5:00 p.m., the regulatory law judge assigned to this action emailed, by reply to all parties copied in Staff's email, his intention to grant Staff's request.

Therefore, the Commission will grant the request in Staff's email; and will excuse all parties, counsel, and witnesses from appearing at the evidentiary hearing on Friday, October 19, 2012.

THE COMMISSION ORDERS THAT:

1. The request in Staff's email, described in the body of this order is granted.

2. All parties, counsel, and witnesses are excused from appearing at the evidentiary hearing on Friday, October 19, 2012.

3. This order is effective immediately upon issuance.

BY THE COMMISSION

Steven C. Reed
Secretary

(S E A L)

Daniel Jordan, Senior Regulatory Law Judge, by delegation of authority pursuant to Section 386.240, RSMo 2000.

Dated at Jefferson City, Missouri,
on this 19th day of October, 2012.
