"There is a higher loyalty than to this country, loyalty to God." United States v. Seeger, 380 U.S. 163; 85 S. Ct. 850; 13 L. Ed. 2d 733; 1965 U.S. (Emphasis mine)

"All acts of legislature apparently contrary to natural right and justice, are, in our laws, and must be in the nature of things, considered as void. The laws of nature are the laws of God; whose authority can be superseded by no power on earth. A legislature must not obstruct our obedience to him from whose punishments they cannot protect us. All human constitutions which contradict his laws, we are in conscience bound to disobey. Such have been the adjudications of our courts of justice. Robin et al. v. Hardaway, et al., 1 Jeff. 109(1772) (Emphasis mine)

"The rights of the individual are not derived from governmental agencies, either municipal, state or federal, or even from the Constitution. They exist inherently in every man, by endowment of the Creator, and are merely reaffirmed in the Constitution, and restricted only to the extent that they have been voluntarily surrendered by the citizenship to the agencies of government. The people's rights are not derived from the government, but the government's authority comes from the people. The Constitution but states again these rights already existing, and when legislative encroachment by the nation, state, or municipality invade these original and permanent rights, it is the duty of the courts to so declare, and to afford the necessary relief. The fewer restrictions that surround the individual liberties of the citizen, except those for the preservation of the public health, safety, and morals, the more contented the people and the more successful the democracy." City Of Dallas v. Mitchell, 245 S.W. 944 (Emphasis mine)

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." Declaration of Independent, JULY 4, 1776

"No fiction can make a natural born subject."

53. Whereas, The Court case decision below affirms that Man/Woman must Consent to be governed. If he chooses not to join, then that is his God Given Right not to contract.

"When a change of government takes place, from a monarchical to a republican government, the old form is dissolved. Those who lived under it, and did not choose to become members of the new, had a right to refuse their allegiance to it, and to retire elsewhere. By being a part of the society subject to the old government, they had not entered into any engagement to become subject to any new form the majority might think proper to adopt. That the majority shall prevail is a rule posterior to the formation of government, and results from it. It is not a rule binding upon mankind in their natural state. There, every man is independent of all laws, except those prescribed by nature. He is not bound by any institutions formed by his fellowmen without his consent." CRUDEN v NEALE, 2 N.C. 338 (1796) 2 S.E. 70. (Emphasis mine)

54. Whereas, Citizenship is a voluntary act not an involuntary act. Citizenship is contractual meaning by contract/consent. To join any country, one must be Naturalized or born on the Land, and not in some fictitious and imaginary plane.

"No man is good enough to govern another man without that others consent."
 Abe Lincoln's Speech, Peoria, Illinois, Oct. 16, 1854 (Emphasis mine)

Failure to do so is denial of the truth and the Falsification of the Record. Failure to respond to AFFIDAVIT OF NON-RESIDENT ALIEN STATUS within THIRTY (30) days of receipt of this Affidavit will result in your satisfactory agreement of this said Affidavit. Unrebutted after Thirty [30] days from the date of recording, this affidavit stands as Fact and Law. Pursuant to Louis Lippinan v. The People of The State of Illinois, 175 Ill. 101; 51 N.E. 872; 1898 Ill. "An affidavit is a statement of facts reduced to writing with that degree of clearness and positiveness that if falsely made the affiant may be held guilty of perjury."

On the Record, for the Record and let the Record Reflect my EXPLICIT RESERVATION OF RIGHTS pursuant to the following Congressional Acts and Supreme Court cases, and to Remind all public officials, elected or appointed, employees and agents, within all three branches of government (Legislative, Executive and Judicial), that Rules Cannot abrogate nor abridge my inherent unalienable (fundamental/substantive) Rights:

Pursuant to YOUR Miranda v. Arizona 384 US 436, 491p which I have read, "Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule making or legislation which would abrogate them."

Pursuant to YOUR 62 STAT. 961 §2072 Rules of Civil Procedure for District Courts, ...Such rules shall not abridge, enlarge or modify any substantive right and shall preserve the right of trial by jury as at common law and as declared by the Seventh Amendment to the Constitution.

Pursuant to YOUR 102 STAT. 4648 §2072(b) Rules Enabling Act, Such rules shall not abridge, enlarge or modify any substantive right. All laws in conflict with such rules shall be of no further force or effect after such rules have taken effect.

Pursuant to YOUR Washington-Southern Nav. Co v. Baltimore & Philadelphia Co. 263 U.S. 629, 635 (1924) "Nor can a rule abrogate or modify the substantive law. This is true, whether the court to which the rules apply be one of law, of equity or admiralty." [Emphasis added]

Pursuant to YOUR Judiciary Act of September 1789, Section 32, FIRST CONGRESS, Sess. 1, Ch. 20, 1789 States: And be it further enacted. That no summons, writ, declaration, return, process, judgment, or other proceedings in civil cases in any of the courts or the United States, shall be abated, arrested, quashed or reversed, for any defect or want of form, but the said courts respectively shall proceed and give judgment according as the right of the cause and matter in law shall appear unto them, without regarding any imperfections, defects or want of form in such writ, declaration, or other pleading, returns process, judgment, or course of proceeding whatsoever, except those only in cases of demurrer, which the party demurring shall specially sit down and express together with his demurrer as the cause thereof. And the said courts respectively shall and may, by virtue of this act, from time to time, amend all and every such imperfections, defects and wants of form, other than those only which the party demurring shall express as aforesaid, and may at any, time, permit either of the parties to amend any defect in the process of pleadings upon such conditions as the said courts respectively shall in their discretion, and by their rules prescribe."

Pursuant to YOUR State v. Arregui, 44 Idaho 43; 254 P. 788 "Law and court-made rules of expediency must not be placed above the constitution... A rule of practice must not be allowed for any technical reason to prevail over a constitutional right and any rule which does so is not founded upon reason or justice."

Pursuant to YOUR United States v. Butler, "When an act of Congress is appropriately challenged in the courts as not conforming to the constitutional mandate the judicial branch of the Government has only one duty, to lay the article of the Constitution which is invoked beside the statute which is challenged and to decide whether the latter squares with the former. All a court does, or can do, is to announce its considered judgment upon the question. The only power it has, if such it may be called, is the power of judgment. The U.S. Supreme Court neither approves nor condemns any legislative policy. Its delicate and difficult office is to ascertain and declare whether the legislation is in accordance with, or in contravention of, the provisions of the Constitution; and, having done that, its duty ends." United States v. Butler et al, 297 U.S. 1; 56 S. Ct. 312
