File No. ER-2012-0345

NOTICE OF CORRECTION

Issue Date: August 8, 2012

On August 6, 2012, the Commission issued an order captioned as Order Setting Procedural Schedule, Establishing Test Year, Establishing Other Procedural Requirements, and Adopting Proposed Customer Notice with Modifications. Ordered paragraph number 3 of that order read as follows:

With regard to data requests relating to the interim rate request, parties shall respond to such requests within five (5) days of the request, and any objection to such data requests and any notification of the need for additional time to respond to such requests shall be due within three (3) days of the request.

The sentence should have read:

With regard to data requests relating to the interim rate request, parties shall respond to such requests within five (5) business days of the request, and any objection to such data requests and any notification of the need for additional time to respond to such requests shall be due within three (3) business days of the request.

The order is accordingly corrected nunc pro tunc.
