Confidential Designation 20 CSR 4240-2.135 (2)

· / J ·	rson may submit to the commission, without first
•	protective order, information designated as confidentia	I if that information is—
□ 1. (Customer-specific information;
□ 2. F	Employee-sensitive personnel information;
	Marketing analysis or other market-specific information
relating to	services offered in competition with others;
□ 4. I	Marketing analysis or other market-specific information
•	goods or services purchased or acquired for use by a company in providing services to customers;
□ 5. F	Reports, work papers, or other documentation related
•	oduced by internal or external auditors, consultants, or
•	except that total amounts billed by each external auditor, co	nsultant, or attorney for services related to general rate proceeding	gs shall always be public;
□ 6. S	Strategies employed, to be employed, or under consideration in contract negotiations;
□ 7. F	Relating to the security of a company's facilities; or
⊠ 8. (Concerning trade secrets, as defined in section
417.453, R	RSMo.