Devnet wedge is the site to pay your taxes on. The information is out there if they know exactly where to go but we do not, as of October 2024, give those sites out because that is lost revenue for us and most companies need a paper trail so they get it through the office. If something is different let me know which parcels and I will look for you.

Tresha,

I apologize that I didn't think to ask you about this sooner, but I was speaking to the Public Service Commission Staff and they told me that someone from your office said that ATXI could go to this website--<https://worthmo.devnetwedge.com/> and get accurate and up-to-date mailing addresses to send notice to. I also remember you saying that the only way to get assessor records is from your office. Also, like I sent you yesterday, there were a few addresses that either were not on or differed from the list of people's addresses that they sent notice to.
