Grain Belt Express, LLC,	)
	)
Respondent	)

COMPLAINANT POSITION STATEMENT

COMES NOW the Complainant, and for her Complainant Position Statement, states as follows:

1. Did Grain Belt Express, LLC (“Grain Belt”) violate any applicable statutes, Commission rules, regulations, Commission orders, or Commission decisions arising from allegations in this Complaint?

Yes. As part of the Findings of Fact in the Report and Order EA-2023-0017 on page 42, line 138 states “The Project is designed to have a minimal impact to land.” Also violated on page 42, line 140 was the Finding of Fact, “The Routing Team for the Project also tried to avoid built-up areas, residences...”. By disregarding the Findings of Fact and choosing to route the Line across the Complainants wooded and underbrush heavy residential property and driveway instead of an adjacent open cow pasture with only grass, very few trees, and no structures of any kind, Complainants residence was clearly not avoided nor the impact to land minimized. All of this combined with the numerous safety risks that routing this line across Complainants residential property make the violation of these Facts of Findings dire.

In addition to the two Findings of Fact that were violated, Commission order No. 9 on page 73 of the EA-2023-0017 Report and Order which states “Grain Belt shall comply with the Missouri Landowner Protocol (Attachment 3), including, but not limited to, a Code of Conduct (Attachment 4)...” was also violated. The evidence will show the Complainant was misled about Grain Belt’s ability to move the line off of Complainant’s property by a representative of Grain Belt.

2. If the Commission determines that Grain Belt violated any applicable statutes, Commission rules, regulations, Commission orders, or Commission decisions arising from allegations in this Complaint, what relief, if any, is appropriate?

Appropriate relief would be for the Commission to require Grain Belt to move the Tiger Connector line off Complainants property.

WHEREFORE, Complainant submits her Complainant Position Statement for the Commission’s information and consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,
