Good afternoon. I'm going to cut right to the chase on my complaint. I'm not interested in long written excuses or deflections. I've had two years of those almost out of you all. I want straight to the point who the author of that document is. Who is the "senior software engineer?" I want to know the exact word for word those coding words mean in sentences and paragraphs. Along with the Ameren logo and other specific sentence structure is interpreted out of those "coding" words.

As of right now, here's my list of who really is the "senior software engineer." The first name starts with an [REDACTED] and the last name starts with a [REDACTED]

Also, keep in mind, Ameren wrote it. Not me, so therefore since they had the audacity to try and sneak such an asinine piece of paper or fake document into the equation was just pretty stupid to do. Ameren wrote it, so they deserve to be subjected to answering the question.

Man, out of all the actual "payment agreements" that anyone has actually had or have. Confidential exhibit D surely stands out from the rest of them. With tons of typos, incorrect email addresses. No time and date stamp. Encryption security details. The author or Ameren logo. I can keep the list going on. What about the wutable?

Was this document a "special" payment agreement?

I just want to know who the author is, because even circling back to EC-2023-0395, there's that nifty comment my buddy, Judge John Clark stated that Ameren was supposed to have someone readily available to answer questions about that document? Do you need that page number? Or can you remember that without having to look back?

Speaking of that? Why didn't Ameren have a "senior software engineer" available for the hearing? Does [REDACTED] hold a software engineer license in the State of Missouri? I get it. the "senior software engineer" is invisible, just like the missing Ameren logo and other corresponding information.

Play it the way you want to. I'll keep on going or Ameren can easily tell me who the author is.

It's also illegal in the State of Missouri to defraud someone out of money prior to an agreed date and to use a counterfeit or non-authored document to defraud someone out of money. It's called theft by deception. Plus theft of funds. Over $[REDACTED] is quite the felony in Missouri, but you are all attorney's so you should probably already know that.

I just want to know the author so I can pass it along to the Prosecuting Attorney's Office. If I don't get the author of the document, I'll just pass [REDACTED] information over to the PA's Office as she's allowing Ameren to defraud customers. She's allowing Ameren to use counterfeit documents and not disclosing who the author of that document is.

Counterfeit documents have consequences. Learn to deal with it. That's essentially what you all made me do. So learn to deal with it.

It's also 2025. So you aren't fooling anyone.

I have one more favor to ask. I would respectfully like my EFIS credentials reinstated therefore I can upload all those nifty payment agreements, therefore you can compare and contrast between them all. I also "promise" not to file anything besides any and all exhibits, when the appropriate time comes.

I'd also like to know why Ameren failed to send me out a rate hike hearing notice? I believe that is up to a $1,500.00 fine in the State Of Missouri for failing to mail out a hearing notice to a rate payer?

I look forward to the author of the documents name!

Well, how are all my [REDACTED] doing? I see the head [REDACTED] Mr. Clark dismissed my complaint!!

Oh, and instead of adding words into my complaint that I never said. I never demanded anything. If anything, I asked for the Commission to look at the payment agreements, and make a decision based solely off that.

Oh, trust me. If I demanded my $ [REDACTED] back, it's going to be me sending the police out to question you about the money that Mr. Clark ordered Ameren to steal.

Then again, Mr. Clark is a [REDACTED] himself, and that is what [REDACTED] do. They manipulate objects to what they feel they should state. He's a [REDACTED]

So, I want to know? Where's my $ [REDACTED] at Ameren and Mr. Clark? When's it going to be returned?

Maybe on the two year anniversary of the illegal disconnection?

Oh and if you think I'm playing around with that question, I really am not.

I know what I should do. I should be like Ameren. Send out a delinquency letter and email.

Well here's that delinquency letter. Ameren has until May 18, 2025 to reimburse the $ [REDACTED] and admit to the St. Louis County Police Department that they stole that money and published a very serious counterfeit document. The fake agreement, by [REDACTED] [REDACTED].

It's the document with NO Ameren logo, email address, author of the document. Fake and bogus coding words.

May 19th, my anniversary gift is coming true! Just wait! Keep in mind, I never published or furnished a fake document, like [REDACTED]

We can't forget with the help of [REDACTED] Clark.

Welp find a way to get me my money before the police get more involved. In fact for all you know, the police could already be involved. I'm just saving each and every email to show Ameren and Mr. Clarks non-compliance and further liability of [REDACTED]

I'll talk to you all on the 19th of May!

While you're at it, you can tell the police your alias names are [REDACTED]

Oh and you all are serious [REDACTED] if you believe anything you read or put on your counterfeit document!

Be responsible Ameren and pay your legal obligated debts you owe.

Enjoy your counterfeit document, you

Oh and I'm calling out Mr. Clark himself as a [REDACTED] It takes a [REDACTED] more importantly a [REDACTED] to ignore answering a common sense question that you and I know the exact answer to too.

[REDACTED] don't have the authority to make decisions in matters. They enjoy police reports being filed against them. [REDACTED]

Prove me wrong Mr. Clark. No one believes any of you. Anyone that has looked at my matter is paying close attention to it right now.

To say I haven't shared all that information with legal authorities would be an understatement.

[REDACTED]

Answer the question, [REDACTED]?

You [REDACTED] with the wrong person to pass a counterfeit document on, and more importantly to steal money not due at the time.

[REDACTED]

Have my money ready. Before you make this matter go further than it should have. And if you continue to spread your lies, it's going to get you in further trouble [REDACTED]

Good morning. Change of plans on when I'm giving you to come clean about the document.

Since it's Mother's Day weekend. I want to show you all what [REDACTED] really deserve. [REDACTED] deserve a police report, as for Mr. Clark, he deserves the biggest police report. [REDACTED]

You have until 12 pm today Friday May 9, 2025 to come clean about the document and admit it is a counterfeit and making arrangements to reimburse the $[REDACTED]

Mr. Clark answer these questions [REDACTED]

- 1) who is the author of the document?
- 2) paying attention to the document where is the actual email address and not fake email address of the document?
- 3) where is Ameren Missouri's time and date stamp along with encryption security detail?
- 4) where is Ameren's customer service number as it is included on all payment agreements?
- 5) where is the header of the document that would state in the subject line the words your payment agreement confirmation?
- 6) what is a so called "wutable"?
- 7) please admit www2.ameren.com is not an email address?

You have until 12 pm today to admit it's a fake document and make restitution plans or at 12:01 pm today I'm notifying the Cole County Sheriffs office [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Oh and I can also assure you, I can still file through EFIS if I want to, as the PSC doesn't hold the power or authority to block my credentials. I just choose not to file.

[REDACTED]

Otherwise , enjoy your Mother's Day weekend you [REDACTED]

Here's your document too. [REDACTED]
Your grace period expires at 12 pm today. You've had almost two years to make plans. You're all in severe default and so can't continue to take on the Commissions debt or Ameren's debt.

Two more hours to come clean about the counterfeit document before I get the Sheriffs Office down the street from the PSC office involved. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

No one, and I mean no one outside the PSC believes you all.

In fact, I'll probably send the PA's office a memo with your email addresses so the PA's Office can assist in greeting an answer!

What do you think the Sheriffs Office will do once see they see its a clear counterfeit?
