NOTICE

During the hearing on this matter, the Office of the Public Counsel, on June 22, 2001, inquired of the Commission which of the Commission's orders set the hearing for two days. The Commission issued its Order Amending Procedural Schedule on May 24, 2001, that stated: "[I]t is necessary for the Commission to further revise the procedural schedule. However, the evidentiary hearing will still be held on June 18 and 19, 2001."

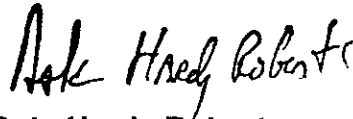

Also on the same date, the Commission ordered the parties to file their initial briefs, being no longer than 50 pages, no later than July 13, 2001, and their reply briefs, being no longer than 15 pages, no later than July 20, 2001.

The Commission also strongly encouraged but did not require the parties to file no later than July 13, 2001, proposed findings of facts and conclusions of law. The parties were instructed that if they did file proposed findings of facts and conclusions of law, each finding and each conclusion should have a citation to the transcript, prefiled testimony, or some other authority.

64

The Commission also ordered that electronic copies of these filings should be submitted electronically to the regulatory law judge.

BY THE COMMISSION

Dale Hardy Roberts
Secretary/Chief Regulatory Law Judge
