File No. EX-2012-0332

NOTICE OF FINDING OF NECESSITY

Issue Date: August 1, 2012

The Commission intends to amend its rule to incorporate references to the most recent 2012 version of National Electrical Safety Code rather than continuing to reference the 2007 edition. The National Electrical Safety Code establishes the minimum operation safety standards that must be met by electrical corporations, telecommunications companies and rural electric cooperatives. The Commission finds that the amendment is necessary, and will seek comments from interested persons as to whether the amendment is appropriately designed and written.
