RE: EA-2022-0234
NextEra Energy Transmission Southwest, LLC

Dear Hon. Dippell:

Pursuant to the December 8, 2022 Order Approving Settlement issued in Docket No. EA-2022-0234 (“Order”), NextEra Energy Transmission Southwest, LLC (“NEET Southwest”) hereby supplements its post-construction filing on completion of the NEET Southwest Wolf Creek-Blackberry 345 kV Transmission Project that spans Barton and Jasper counties in Missouri, as well as five counties in Kansas (“Project”).

GENERAL OVERVIEW

In the second quarter of 2025, NEET Southwest completed construction activities on the Project, and the Project was energized on July 15, 2025. Pursuant to the Order, after completion of construction activities, NEET Southwest is required to file certain information, documents, or reports, including:

- Item 1: Final Operations and Maintenance Plans for the project,
- Item 2: Final 345 kV Transmission Line Restoration Plan,
- Item 3: Final Storm Outage and Emergency Response Plan
- Item 4: Final Communications Plan
- Item 5: Contracts for vendor support services including but not limited to any contract with vendor(s) providing response to unplanned outages
- Item 6: Contract for vendor providing unplanned outage response times and equipment availability specifications for the Missouri Project
- Item 7: Documents demonstrating that NEET Southwest has met the construction requirements of the SPP Request For Production (“RFP”)
- Item 8: As-Built Drawings

NEET Southwest filed its first post-construction compliance filing on September 18, 2025, and with it, information responsive to Items 1-6.

NEET Southwest has included, with this filing, copies of documents responsive to Items 7 and 8. These items are:

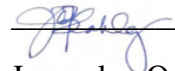

- A letter from Burns & McDonnell, the Project engineer, stating that the design conforms with SPP RFP requirements (Item 7)
- 68 Confidential As-Built Drawing comprising the whole of the facilities spanning the Missouri portion of the Project. These documents are titled with the naming convention: “CONFIDENTIAL_WCB-...” (Item 8)

This filing concludes NEET Southwest’s post-construction compliance filing obligations.

CONCLUSION

Please feel free to contact me with any additional questions.
