Missouri Public Service Commission

v.

Ameren Missouri d/b/a Union Electric Company, Respondent.

Case No. EC-2026-0128

NOTICE OF RESOLUTION THROUGH MEDIATION

COME NOW the Complainants, Brett Felber and Lisa Lambert, and hereby provide notice to the Missouri Public Service Commission of their willingness to resolve the above-captioned matter through mediation.

The Complainants respectfully state that they are willing to engage in good faith mediation to resolve all issues currently pending in this matter, contingent upon the willingness of the Respondent, Ameren Missouri d/b/a Union Electric Company, to participate in such mediation.

The Complainants believe that mediation presents an efficient and practical avenue for resolution, and that all parties involved would be able to address and resolve the issues raised in the complaint through this process. Additionally, proceeding through mediation would allow the Commission to allocate its time and resources toward higher priority matters.

WHEREFORE, the Complainants respectfully notify the Commission of their willingness to resolve this matter through mediation and request that this option be considered should the Respondent agree to participate.

Respectfully submitted,

Brett Felber
