RESPONSE TO COMMISSION ORDER

COMES NOW The Empire District Electric Company, a Liberty Utilities company (“Empire”), and respectfully submits its responses to the questions presented by the Commission in its Order Opening an Investigation of Missouri Jurisdictional Generator Self-Commitments and Self-Scheduling, issued June 5, 2019, and its Order Directing Comments, issued June 24, 2019.

1. Empire’s responses to the six initial questions set forth in the Commission’s June 5th Order Opening an Investigation of Missouri Jurisdictional Generator Self-Commitments and Self-Scheduling, for each of its generation facilities and on an annual basis over the last three years, are contained in the Excel file attached hereto as Exhibit A. Additional information and supporting data is also being provided directly to the Commission’s Staff. Due to EFIS file size limitations, the complete responses cannot be submitted through EFIS.
2. Empire’s response to the additional requests for information set forth in the Commission’s June 5th Order Opening an Investigation of Missouri Jurisdictional Generator Self-Commitments and Self-Scheduling is attached hereto as Exhibit B.
3. Empire’s responses to the two questions presented in the Commission’s June 24th Order Directing Comments are set forth in the document attached hereto as Exhibit C.

4. Empire's responses were prepared by or under the direction of Aaron Doll, Director of Electrical Procurement for the Liberty Utilities Central Region.

Wherefore, The Empire District Electric Company, a Liberty Utilities company, submits its Response to Commission Order.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Diana C. Carter
