MOTION TO LIFT STAY

COME NOW, John Leuchtman and Lakewood Hills Homeowners Association, Inc. (“HOA”) (jointly, “Complainants”), by and through their attorney, and for their motion to lift the stay in these proceedings, state as follows:

1. On June 23, 2026,¹ John Leuchtmann filed a complaint with the Commission against Liberty Utilities, LLC d/b/a Liberty.
2. On July 7, Lakewood Hills Homeowners Association, Inc. was granted intervention.
3. On July 22, Liberty filed its Answer to the complaint. The Staff of the Commission (“Staff”) filed its Staff Report on August 19.
4. On September 3, the Commission held a prehearing conference and ordered a proposed procedural schedule to be filed no later than September 24.
5. On September 4, the Complainants filed a Motion for Stay (Motion). The Motion requested a stay of the proceedings to allow time for the parties to pursue settlement.
6. The Commission granted the Motion on September 8, directing the Complainants to file a status report or other appropriate pleading no later than October 5.
7. Complainants and Liberty have presented alternative settlement proposals to each other. Complainant have no expectation at this time that a settlement can be achieved.

WHEREFORE, Complainants request the stay on these proceedings be lifted.

Respectfully submitted,

By:
