

KCPL GMO
Case Name: 2019 Sibley Accounting Order Request/Complaint
Case Number: EC-2019-0200

Response to Woodsmall David Interrogatories - MEEG_20190530
Date of Response: 6/18/2019

Question:5-30

Referencing Mr. Klote's testimony at pages 23 and 24: Please provide all citations to the Uniform System of Accounts that support the contention that simply because an event is "anticipated and communicated well in advance" it is not "extraordinary, unusual or unique."

Response:

In Mr. Klote's opinion, that an event is "anticipated and communicated well in advance" indicates that it may not be extraordinary under general instruction 7 as interpreted by the Commission.

Attachment: Q5-30_Verification.pdf

MEEG Exhibit No. 23
Date 8-8-19 Reporter Bjt
File No. EC-2019-0200

KCPL GMO

Case Name: 2019 Sibley Accounting Order Request/Complaint

Case Number: EC-2019-0200

Response to Woodsmall David Interrogatories - MECG_20190530

Date of Response: 6/18/2019

Question:5-31

Referencing Mr. Klote's testimony at pages 23 and 24: Please provide all citations to Commission rules and orders that support the contention that simply because an event is "anticipated and communicated well in advance" it is not "extraordinary, unusual or unique."

Response:

Mr. Klote has not undertaken a review of all Commission AAO orders, but he is of the opinion that if an event has been anticipated and communicated well in advance it may not be extraordinary, unusual or unique under general instruction 7 as interpreted by the Commission.

Attachment: Q5-31_Verification.pdf