ENTERGY ARKANSAS, INC.'S MOTION TO BE EXCUSED

Comes Now Entergy Arkansas, Inc. ("EAI"), by counsel and for its motion to be excused from appearing at, or participating in, further proceedings in this case submits as follows:

1. As described in detail in Case No. EA-2012-0321, EAI has very limited transmission assets in Missouri and recently obtained a certificate of public convenience and necessity from the Commission regarding those assets in said Case No. EA-2012-0321.

2. EAI participated in the workshop discussions on November 14, 2012, regarding the hedging practices of its affiliates in other states. EAI does not engage in hedging practices in Missouri.

WHEREFORE, EAI moves the Commission for an order excusing EAI from any further proceedings in this case.
